

Northeast Wisconsin Piano Teachers Forum

October 4, 2019

Minutes

Present: Charnon, Teegarden, Boremanns, Buelow, Lueck, Hinnendael, Cape, Busse, Haag, Cosner, Hay, Janssen, Rector, Keoberl

1. Meeting was called to order at 9:00
2. Minutes from September 19, 2019 meeting were approved
3. Committee Reports

A. Festival

The new technique forms for Classical Festival will be on the website by the November meeting. Baroque and Classical entry forms have been updated and are on website. Please use new ones.

The committee will be scheduling the festivals after the November meeting and information will be given to participants ASAP.

Charnon will investigate what happened to the Rules and Regulations document on the website.

If you need them before they reappear e-mail Maggie and she will send you a hard copy.

Entry forms and compositions are due on October 25 to Maggie Charnon. Late forms will not be accepted.

The Honors Recital for All Star is a 1:00 on Nov 17 and for Baroque at 2:30 on Nov 17. Both are at Elizabeth Seton Church in Green Bay

B. Website Committee

The google calendar is up and running and available to all members.

The map on the website has been fixed

Deb Teegarden will be maintaining the historian records on the website from now on. You are welcome to send pictures to her.

C. Ethics Committee

New members should sign and return the code of ethics available on the website. It is requested that all members review it. Barb Hinnendael reminded members of the duty to inform members when students approach them that are currently with another member.

4. Old Business

Deb Teegarden will send out email regarding the Mall performance opportunity

5. VP Report

November will be a share meeting. There is no specific topic.

6. Treasurer Report

There is currently $5,083.11 in the account

7. Announcements

Kate Janssen is looking for teachers to take some of her students over as she is downsizing. Please contact her

Michael Rector announced his solo recital on October 28, 2019 at 6:30 at the Weidner Center. His program will feature music of Robert Schumann and Morton Feldmen. It is free and open to the public.

8. The meeting adjourned at 9:20. A new record.

A wonderful program featuring teaching approaches to Romantic style was presented by Joyce Grill.

Respectfully submitted,

Maggie Charnon, secretary.