5. Committee Reports:

From the festival committee: Due to the small number of estimated entries the festival committee is canceling the 2023 classical festival. No decisions regarding festivals for 2023-24 have been made. The committee appreciates your input regarding next year.

Announcement : Lucinda Roberts is looking for a pianist for 2 WSMA state entries. 35.00 per entry. Contact her for The rest of the details. Ljroberts@gbaps.org

Presentation: Mary Frantz received the Lifetime Achievement Award for her years of outstanding teaching and performing.

A. Teacher Referrals

Annie Schneider requests that if you would like to have your name on the availability list that you send your contact information and the area that you live in to her. It was suggested that you should also contact her if you want your name removed. This is updated every year, so please look over your status and respond. You may contact Annie at any time during the year when you would like to be added to the referral list. We always send out names to those that contact us looking for a teacher.

5. TLC

Stella's family thanked the forum for the flowers.

Carola and her husband had Covid but are doing better now. She is in Room 310 at Renaissance. They do have a keyboard if you would like to play for her. She loves visitors.

Barb Hay broke her leg downhill skiing. She can't drive. We hope you feel better quickly Barb!
