Festival Committee will be meeting on June 21st. Please contact Maggie Charnon with any questions or concerns before then.
6. TLC: Annie Schneider presented outgoing president, Heidi Lueck and outgoing secretary, Rachel Yanke with plants. There was resounding applause and thanks for their dedication and hard work.

7. New business

Discussion ensued regarding storage of documents etc. It was suggested that a thumb drive could serve as back up to hard copy but that we should remain producing hard copy. It was also suggested that the Website could put some things under password protection (for members only). Maggie Charnon agreed to explore these issues and report to the Advisory Committee in the Summer.

8. Announcements

Kay Busse will be having rotator cup surgery this summer. We wished her a speedy and full recovery

Maggie Charnon announced that Turner Hall, in Wrightstown, has offered their facility for recital use free of charge. It has a new grand and recording and sound systems available.

Jennifer Healy noted that the new Ceder Creek Event Center in De Pere was also available for recitals. Call them for details.

The Forum has been invited to participate in a regional Monster Concert organized by The Fox Vallet Teachers Association. Maggie Charnon will be representing the Forum on the steering committee. Heidi Lueck will also assist. The Monster concert is planned for January of 2026. More detail in September.

Carola Buelow has moved permanently to the Rennes Nursing Home. She is celebrating her 93rd birthday and her husband. Rev Leonard Buelow are celebrating their 70th wedding anniversary. She has graciously donated her entire music and teaching library to us for distribution. Maggie Charnon will be in charge of this and more information will be coming this summer via email. There are 24, 17 X 17 X 17 boxes!

Respectfully submitted,
Maggie Charnon, secretary
