

2. Fees and Entry Forms

Fees, entry forms and instructions are available on the web site. They must be submitted by the due dates on the current calendar. Incomplete or late entries are not accepted.

3. Teacher Requirements

Teachers must be available to work on the day of the festival or in some capacity determined by the Festival Committee. If teachers have winners on the Honors Recital, it is expected they will attend and assist.

4. Open and Closed Auditions

All competitive events are open to the public. Students may opt for a closed audition for non-competitive and All Star events. Only the performance portion of the event may be recorded. Judge's comments and demonstrations may not be recorded.

5. Judging

Students, parents and teachers are not allowed to discuss the performance or rating with the judge. Doing so may result in disqualification.

6. Musical Scores

Students must supply an original score of their music with numbers measured for the judge. No photo copies are allowed.

7. Exams

Theory/History exams must be started by the time announced in the teacher instruction letter. Teachers will receive the score and the test after the festival. The received test must be destroyed after reviewing them.

8. Results

All results are final. Competition winners and those students eligible for Honors at the All Star Festival will be announced on the day of the festival once all events are completed. Teachers must be available to receive the names of the students that are selected for the honors recital and then contact their students. If the teacher can not be contacted the student will not be eligible for their award or scholarship. Results of performance events at the All Star Festival will be posted throughout the day.

9. Honors Recital

Baroque Festival: The top three competitive winners in each level are required to perform on the Honors Recital. Non compliance results in relinquishing their title and scholarship.

All Star Festival: Students will be invited to perform on an Honors Recital if they meet the criteria. (See below.) The honors recital is not required for All Star
