Vice President Report:

Anne Reiser has been booked to speak at the April meeting.

An up-to-date calendar is available on the web site. Some of the Spring meetings are not on the normal first Friday of the month. Please check for dates and locations.

Please send suggestions for speakers and topics for the 2025/26 calendar to Heidi Lueck (Vice President). The Advisory Committee meets in the summer to set it up.

Festival Committee Report:

Participation by both the number of teachers and the number of students increased for 2025.

The festival ran at a slight profit due to less expenses than normal.

Next year is the 50th anniversary of the Baroque Festival. Charnon announced that there is a commemoration of the Festival being planned and the details will be given in January.

There was no old or new business

Several Announcements were made:

Deb Teegarden remains active in the Chantelles and they have several performances planned for the season. They are also always looking for new members who enjoy singing. Please contact her for details.

Heidi Koeberl has stepped up her performing experiences with an appearance at Cup of Joy on Dec. 12. Tickets are required.

Annie Schneider came with a box of donated music of which several teachers were able to use. Charnon took the box home. She will bring it to the next meeting. If you want to look it over before then, please contact her. A donation for the music you take is appreciated.

Allyson Wenzlick sent greetings from Carola Buelow. Carola is at Rennes and would love to have visitors. It was suggested however that you call first since she is in about every possible activity they have at the home. Phone: 920-370-0148.

Please send any names or information you have regarding area piano tuners to Abby Cosner. She will assemble the information and present to the Forum at a later date.

The meeting adjourned at 9:45. We ate and laughed and spread our good wishes for a safe, happy and warm holiday season.

Respectfully Submitted,
Maggie Charnon, secretary NEWPTF
